Mayor Kiss, Congressional, Quebec and Regional Officials to Dedicate Champlain 400
Plaza Dedication Oct 1

Burlington, VT – September 30, 2010. Burlington Mayor Bob Kiss will join representatives of Quebec, other regional municipalities, Congressional representatives, and First Nation representatives for a dedication and ribbon cutting for the “Champlain 400 Plaza” on Oct 1, 2010 at 4pm. The dedication will occur on College Street between Lake and Battery streets, at the Champlain 400 plaza.

The dedication comes one year after the City and region’s celebration of the Quadricentennial, 400 years since the explorer Samuel De Champlain arrived in Vermont. It is part of a set of events which includes the “Queen City Radio Show” later in the evening at Contois Auditorium.
